5. Criteria for Determination of Materiality of Events:

Materiality has to be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/ event. In order to determine whether a particular event or information is material in nature, the following 'quantitative' or 'qualitative' criteria(s) shall be applied.

Quantitative criteria

Materiality shall become applicable to an event or information where the value involved or the impact exceeds 1% of the total revenue or 1% of the Net worth, whichever is less, on the basis of last audited financial statements of the Company.

Quantitative criteria Materiality shall become applicable to an event or information:

- (a) if the omission of which is likely to result in a discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
- (b) if the omission is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date; or
- (c) if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event or information is considered material; or
- (d) any other event / information which is treated as unpublished price sensitive information.

Materiality of information to be disclosed in Public Issue offer documents

- (a) For the purposes of determining the litigation(s) to be disclosed in the public issue offer document, materiality threshold will be an impact of 5% of PAT as per the audited financial statements of the Company.
- (b) All criminal proceedings, tax matters (consolidated numbers for direct and indirect tax) and actions taken by statutory and regulatory authorities would be disclosed in the Offer Document irrespective of the amount involved.
- (c) Any other litigations which can have a material adverse effect on the financial position of the Company would also be disclosed.

In circumstances where 'quantitative' test may not be applicable, 'qualitative' test may be applied to determine materiality.

6. Authorization for Making Disclosures:

The Chairman and Managing Director, Vice Chairman & Managing Director, Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary of the Company are severally/ jointly authorized for the purpose of determining materiality of an event/ information and for the purpose of making disclosures to stock exchange(s) under this Policy, the contact details of whom are also available on the website of the Company.
